SAINTSMAN

Dedication . . .

REVEREND CHARLES J. DANAHER, O.S.A.

It is with great pride that we dedicate this annual to a priest who through his zealous, selfless devotion will always be a part of St. Augustine High School.

Father Charles J. Danaher, O.S.A. has been identified with Saints since 1946, when as a young priest he began here his first teaching assignment. From then until June of 1962, with the exception of one scholastic year when he was assigned to parish work in Atlantic City, Fr. Danaher gave most generously of his priestly life to St. Augustine High School. In addition to his teaching assignments, Fr. Danaher was for many years the school chaplain in which capacity he helped and guided hundreds of Saintsmen who through the years would approach him with their problems.

In December of 1959, Fr. Danaher was made prior of the Augustinian community teaching here. He served as Father Superior until June of 1962 when he was assigned to Archbishop Carroll High School in Washington, D.C.

It is our prayer that those who are now privileged to have him in their midst may grow to know and love the sterling worth of this man, who through fifteen years of dedicated service has become a living tradition of St. Augustine High School.

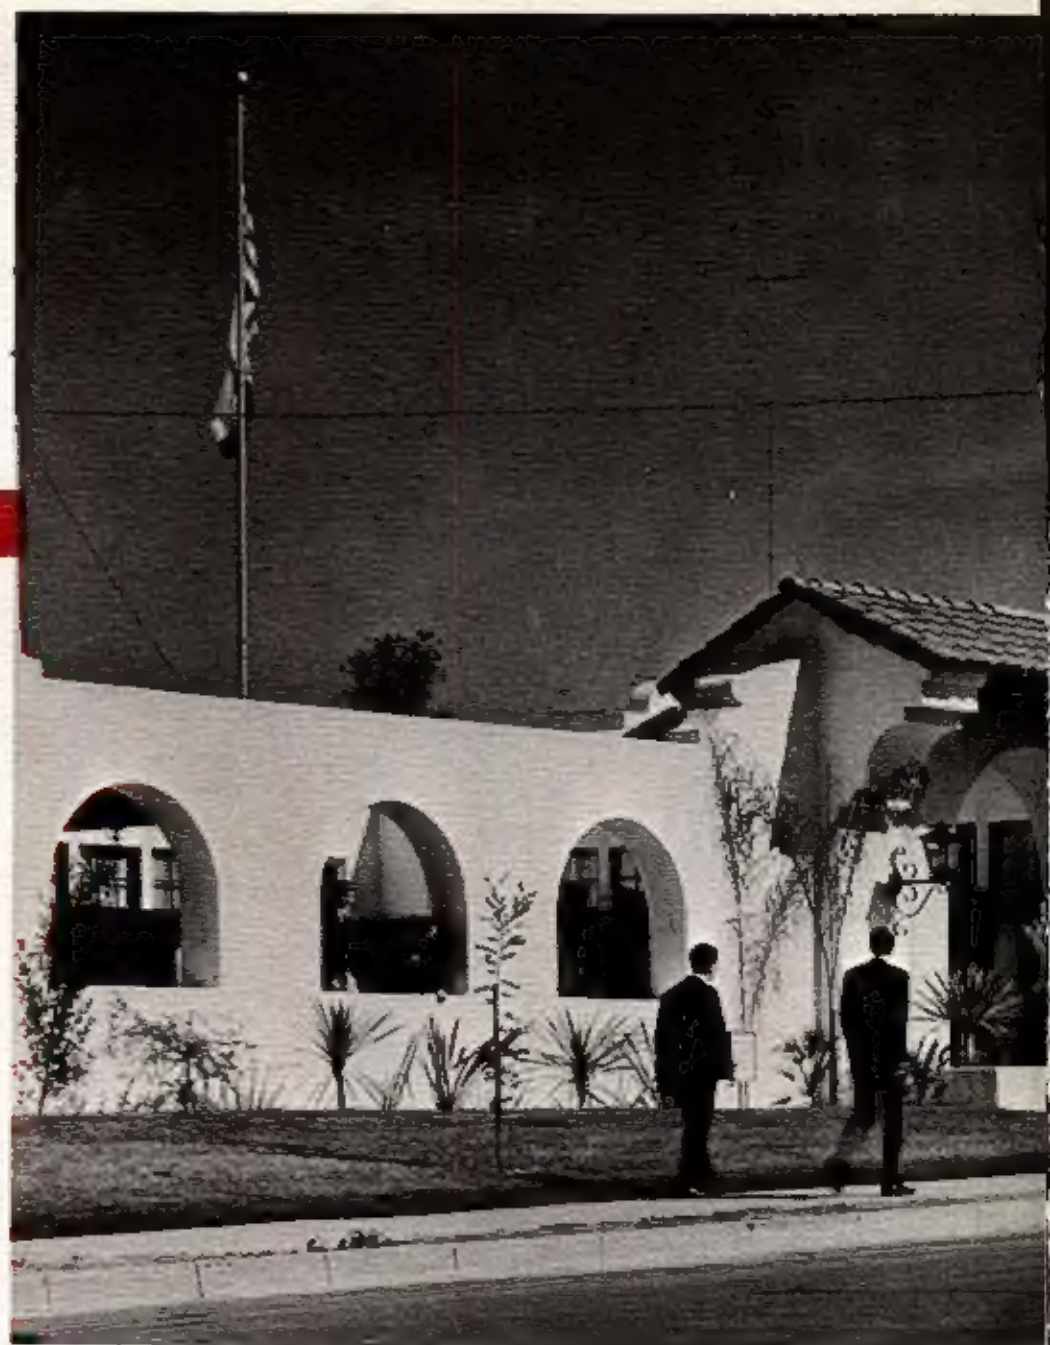

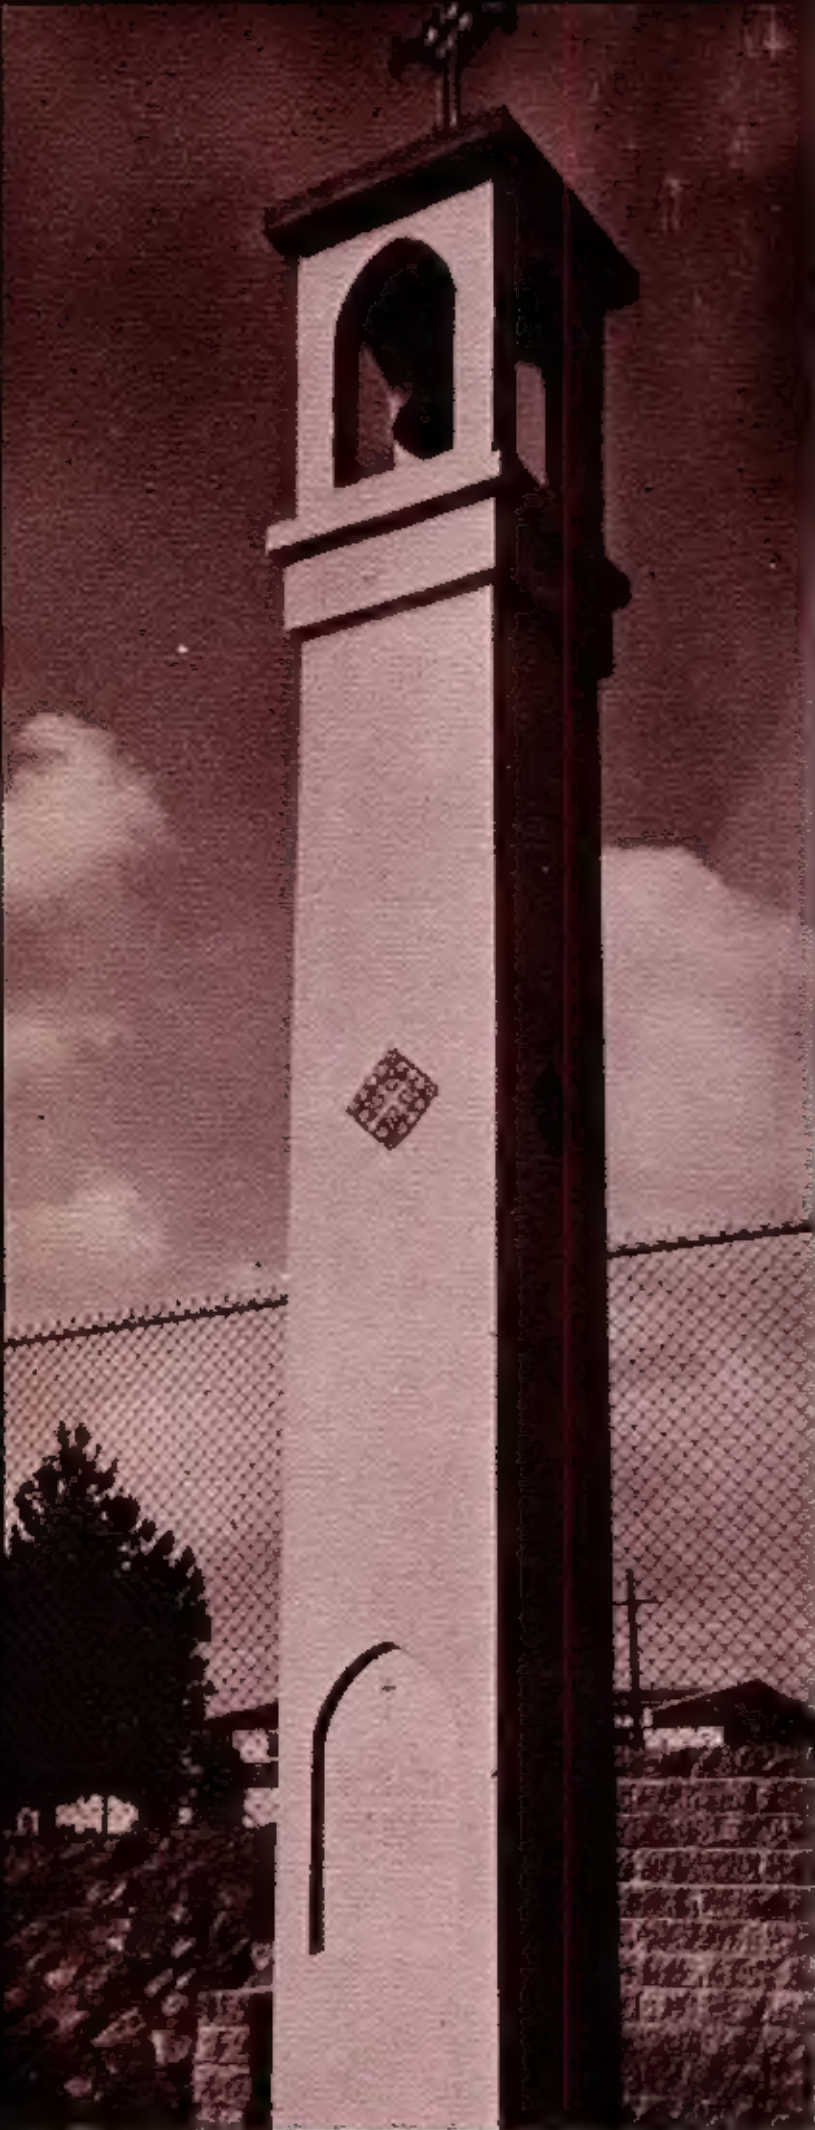

Foreword

This year's SAINTSMAN was conceived with the intention of graphically representing as accurately as possible the various facets of activity at St. Augustine High School. While designing our year book a member of the staff noted that it would be found, as in the past, in school libraries throughout this county and at many Augustinian schools across the country. It was decided at that time that because a yearbook can be an effective representative of the manner and life of a school we should at least attempt to fashion our book along such lines.

St. Augustine's is not merely a high school nor is it just another college prep school. Our school and faculty are an institution and a landmark in the field of education. We are not so humble as to disregard this fact nor will we students fail to promote its prominence.

We, the staff, feel that we have assembled a yearbook of lasting value in every respect. It should serve in future years as the traditional touchstone of memories. It should serve now as a clearer insight into the campus, faculty and student body that comprise St. Augustine High School.

Our Campus . .

Here in pictures and words is our campus. This year an extensive landscaping program was undertaken, a program whose specific purpose was to make the "campus green" greener. Along with structural improvements, these efforts have resulted in a far more beautiful alma mater. From the bell tower to the arches to the statues St. Augustine High School is an edifice which inspires much pride and demands much respect. Quiet and composed though they are, our grounds come alive each day as seven hundred and fifty students flood the corridors and patios with their exuberance. This is the purpose of the school campus: to foster and enkindle through its atmosphere a spirit and zest for learning.

FACULTY

This section is dedicated to our hard-working and devoted faculty who daily endeavor to inculcate some semblance of knowledge into our less than reticent memories. This sometimes difficult task is one which requires patience and endurance. Our appreciation must at times seem lacking. Without their guidance, however, our progress would be little more than evident. To these, our faculty, we offer this segment in grateful acknowledgment of their services.

ADMINISTRATION

Provides . . .

School Principal

Rev. Patrick J. Keane, O.S.A.

Our principal in his first year as head man on the campus can be given nothing but praise and continuing admiration. There can be no doubts, observations, or any difficulties when considering his prominence in the proper functioning of Saint Augustine's. Besides his many demanding responsibilities as principal he manages frequent appearances on campus as well as teaching mathematics and religion. As an alumnus and one devoted to the ideals of Christian manhood, Father Keane has directed a fine and enterprising, academic and social year. May God bless him.

SENIORS

The Senior Class of 1963 represents four years of hard work. Ours is not a desire for retrospect but rather an uncertainty in looking forward to our separate futures. Despite our inhibitions a certain pleasure is derived from the knowledge that we are fundamentally equipped for that future. To the seniors of '63 this section is dedicated as a remembrance of their final year.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS, president Thomas Procopio, vice-president Vic Miller, treasurer Bob Ahern and secretary Bill Farrell confer in front of the statue of Saint Augustine.

Seniors of '63

This is the Senior Class of 1963. Today we are students. Tomorrow? Some will go one way, others will pursue entirely different courses. We leave this campus equipped with a substantial education; we leave each one of us to find that niche in life for which we are individually suited. Then no longer will we be students but in a way teachers. There will be another generation of students and it will be our task to inspire them as we have been inspired, to lead them as we have been lead, and to instill in them the desire for achievement that has been ours. There is no destiny that one does not formulate for himself. Success is directly proportional to effort, and effort directly proportional to desire. This is the Class of 1963, young men of desire, of effort and someday grown men of success.

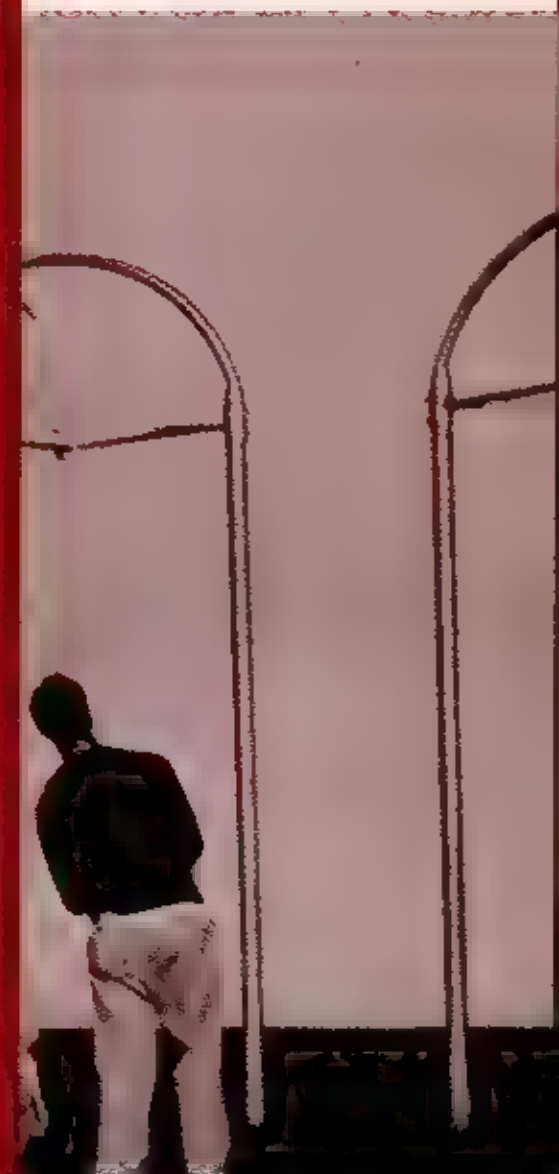

CLASSES

St. Augustine's has a tradition of forty-one years. On the shoulders of the underclassmen falls a great part of the burden of upholding this tradition. Soon they must discover the necessary vigor of action and the even more necessary vigor of mind and spirit. It is for this reason that we, the staff of the SAINTSMAN, dedicate this section to our underclassmen, the hope of the future.

SPORTS

The Associated Students present this section as a tribute to our outstanding teams and their dedicated coaches. Their concerted efforts augmented by those of a spirited student body have reemphasized the necessity of sound athletic competition. We are proud of the contests lost and won and of the men who represented them.

The Team of '63

The squad of football players that met the Varsity coaches in spring workouts had a strong base of 13 returning lettermen, but this was not enough material to last for 48 minutes a game. Coaches, Tom Carter and Joe Galindo had a big job in front of them.

Within a week after coming back from summer vacation, the mighty SAINTS team took shape. The coaches set their powerful offense around the likes of Rich Cendali and Don Stafford, both All-CIF, and around All League quarterback Bob Ahern. With the help of some fine offensive blocking by Danny Ramos, the team looked good enough to be picked to win the Eastern League. Some clutch running by Sal DeMaria, passing by Bob Ahern, and catching by Ardlin Bartley helped SAINTS to many of their victories.

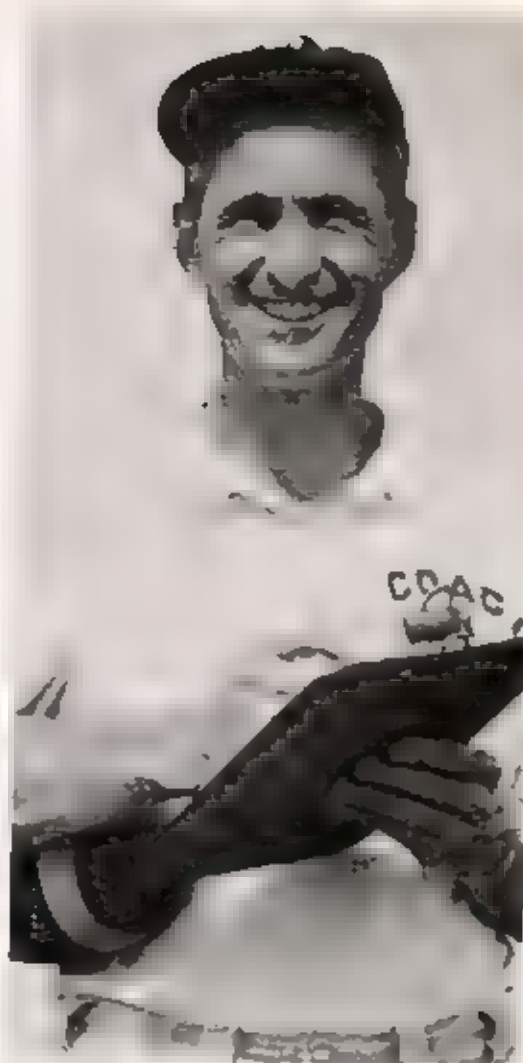

The next problem for the coaches was the defensive team. Within a few weeks that also was solved. The defensive team, led by Tom Procopio, held opponents to 58 points. Procopio, a returning letterman, was virtually all over the field while playing from his line-backing position.

November 9th, found the Saints men in Balboa Stadium pitted against San Diego High. At this point in the season both offense and defense reached their climax and completely trounced the Cavers for the third straight time.

George Romero and Bill Orrico, both J.V. players last year, came through with outstanding performances for the defensive team.

Galindo. THIRD ROW: D. Stafford, V. Hauser, F. Reed, C. Champion, D. Vengler, M. Mortera, M. Whitney, J. Asher, S. Duich, V. Miller, J. Boschetto, R. Cendali, Coach T. Carter.

Saints Nip Vaqueros

On Friday night, September 28, St. Augustine officially opened its 1962 football season by beating El Capitan, 7-6. In the first period, following a bad snap from center, the Vaqueros opened scoring with a touchdown, but the Saints line stiffened and the try for the extra point failed.

Early in the second quarter, quarterback Bob Ahern rolled out around the end and found Sal De Maria in the end zone for the touchdown. The TD capped a long sustained march. Paul Tuomainen added the all important winning extra point on a perfect conversion.

Toumainen was easily the game's outstanding player, as his punting ability constantly kept El Cap deep in its own territory. Other stalwart performances were delivered by Bill Orrico, Jim Antl and Art Snell. The whole defensive line, though, must be given credit for holding the Vaquero backs to almost nothing.

Paul Tuomainen, Saints highly competent and versatile back, snares pass for touchdown.

Don Stafford breaks loose for a substantial gain as Marty Marking clears the way.

Saints Smash Spartans

On October 5th, Saints traveled to Chula Vista where they trounced the Spartans 14-0, in a game whose true tale cannot be told by the score.

After a scoreless first quarter the Saintsmen hammered for two touchdowns for all the game's scoring. The quarter was barely two minutes old when quarterback Bob Ahern hit Don Stafford in the end zone for the six-pointer. Later in the period, Henry Daniels romped around end for the second score of the quarter. Paul Tuomainen converted after both touchdowns.

A tough defensive line led by Bill Orrico, Joe Burns and George Romero was superb in holding the Spartan backs at bay. The offense was sparked by the running of Daniels and Stafford.

Point Loma Trips Saints

On October 12th, Saints met Point Loma and suffered a 21-13 defeat. A large Balboa Stadium crowd saw the Pointers rally for two second half touchdowns to overcome a 13-7 half-time deficit.

Point Loma drew first blood when an intercepted pass was run back 66 yards for the score.

The Saintsmen came roaring back with a sustained march as Don Stafford pushed over from one yard out.

In the second quarter Stafford took a handoff and shot over right tackle and bulled his way 76 yards to paydirt.

Point Loma scored the final two touchdowns in the third quarter, while the Saintsmen failed in a counter attempt. Stafford gave an outstanding performance for the Saints on both offense and defense.

All-League, All-CIF center, Rich Cendali was the mainstay of Saints fine offensive line.

Strong, powerful, defensive line stops Pointer for no gain.

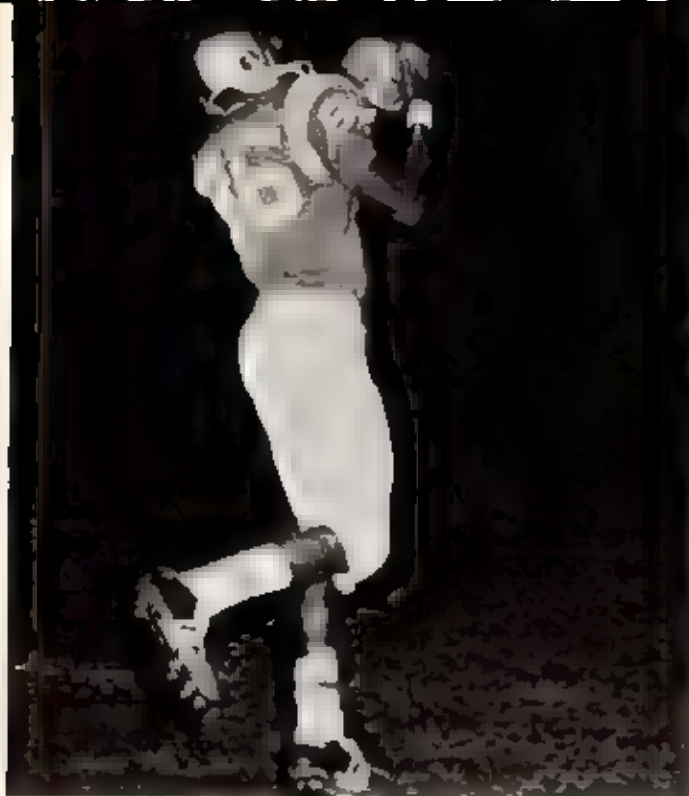

Saints Sink Bucs

On November 2nd, St. Augustine met Mission Bay at Aztec Bowl and crushed the winless Bucs, 27-6. The Saintsmen were paced by the running of Henry Daniels and Don Stafford, along with the pinpoint passing of Bob Ahern.

Daniels was a constant source of confusion to the Bucs as he scored two touchdowns and piled up big yardage all night. Ahern passed for two scores, one to Daniels and one to Sal DeMaria. Stafford plunged over from one yard out for the final score. Paul Tuomainen booted conversions after the final three touchdowns. Rich McColl played an outstanding game on defense for the Saintsmen.

Henry Daniels, Saints breakaway threat, an Honorable Mention, All-League choice, was named Most Valuable Offensive Back.

Ardlin Bartley, Saints highly-capable All-League end, hauls in one of his many receptions in the San Diego game.

Saints Crush Colts

St. Augustine and Crawford opened the 1962 Eastern League season with the Saintsmen inflicting a 19-6 defeat on their rivals. The Saints were paced by the passing of Bob Ahern, the running of Don Stafford, and a defensive line, led by Tom Procopio.

Saints took the opening kickoff and marched 60 yards to the score with Ahern hitting Ardlin Bartley for the six-pointer. Crawford took the ensuing kickoff and drove 65 yards to their touchdown, but that was it for the Colts.

Near the end of the first half, the Saintsmen started moving the ball again. Bob Ahern found Marty Marking in the clear, and the red-head eluded the last Colt defender to go in for the score. Sal DeMaria added the final tally in the 4th quarter on a five yard dash.

Saints, Hornets Battle to Tie

St. Augustine met Lincoln on the Hoover High gridiron, and battled the Hornets to a 6-6 tie in a game highlighted by brilliant defense by both teams.

After a scoreless first quarter the Saintsmen took over on the Lincoln 31 yard line, following a fumble recovery by Ferd Reed. It took the Saints nine plays to cover the distance with Sal DeMaria spurting over from one yard out for the score. The conversion kick was blocked.

In the third quarter the Hornets managed to get themselves going and a 60 yard scoring march produced the tying marker. The PAT failed.

Both teams had opportunities to score late in the game but could not get the extra distance. An interception by Don Stafford killed the last Hornet threat.

Quarterback Bob Ahern, All-League Honorable Mention.

All League defensive back Tom Procopio.

Cavers Stymied

On November 9th, Saint Augustine celebrated its annual homecoming by trouncing San Diego High, 13-6. After failing to score in each of the first two stanzas, the Saintsmen rallied for two third period touchdowns to pull the game out. The Saints defense, led by Tom Procopio, held the Cavers at bay after surrendering a first half touchdown.

Paced by the running of Henry Daniels and Don Stafford, along with the passing of Bob Ahern, the Saintsmen mounted a third period offense for their two scores. Stafford plunged over for both scores after long marches. Daniels made good yardage in both drives, and Ahern hit end Ardlin Bartley with clutch passes to keep both drives going. Other outstanding games were delivered by Rich McColl and Bill Orrico.

sizable gain as Saints rip Crawford 19-6.

Hoover Halts Saints

Hoover High captured the 1962 Eastern League title by beating Saints 7-0, in a game which saw brilliant defense by both teams. The Saintsmen took second place in the Eastern Loop for the 5th consecutive year.

Hoover scored the game's only touchdown in the second quarter, following a punt runback. The punt was run into the end zone but was called back for clipping, placing the ball on the Saints 25 yard line. It took the Redbirds just 7 plays to cover the distance and wrap up the league title.

The Saintsmen had two opportunities to score in the second half, but proved to be ineffective inside the Cards ten yard line. A Tom Procopio-led defense repelled the opposition most of the game, as the Cardinals had trouble getting out of their own territory.

Danny Ramos, a major asset to Saints offensive line, captured All-League honors.

Future Varsity Stars

The J.V. Football team led by full-back Dick Kovalcheck, came to a tentative 2nd place finish in the league this year, losing only to Point Loma and Morse. Coaches Erber and Evans shaped this squad of maybe's into a finely knit team that provided much excitement for the spirited Saintsmen. The season record was 5 wins, 2 losses and one tie.

An outstanding line was led by juniors Dean Harold and Tim Thomerson, both good prospects for next year's varsity. Special recognition should be given to sophomores Fred Mix, Drew Tricoli, and Mike Weber. With the likes of such players, next year's varsity should carry on the tradition of previous SAINTS teams.

Palmer bats down a pass.

Mix piles over under watchful eyes of fellow teammates.

Saint's Cross Country team under new coach John Bowman, was our best ever. Saints captured 4th place in the league and they also made fine showings in the Aztec Invitational and Eastern League Finals. Senior John Kimbrough along with Juniors Rich Cota and Bob D'Alessandro were the mainstays of the team.

Fine showings by the underclassmen indicate that SAINTS has the nucleus of a great team next season.

Rich Cota keeps far out in front of the rest of the pack.

John Kimbrough pulls away from opponent.

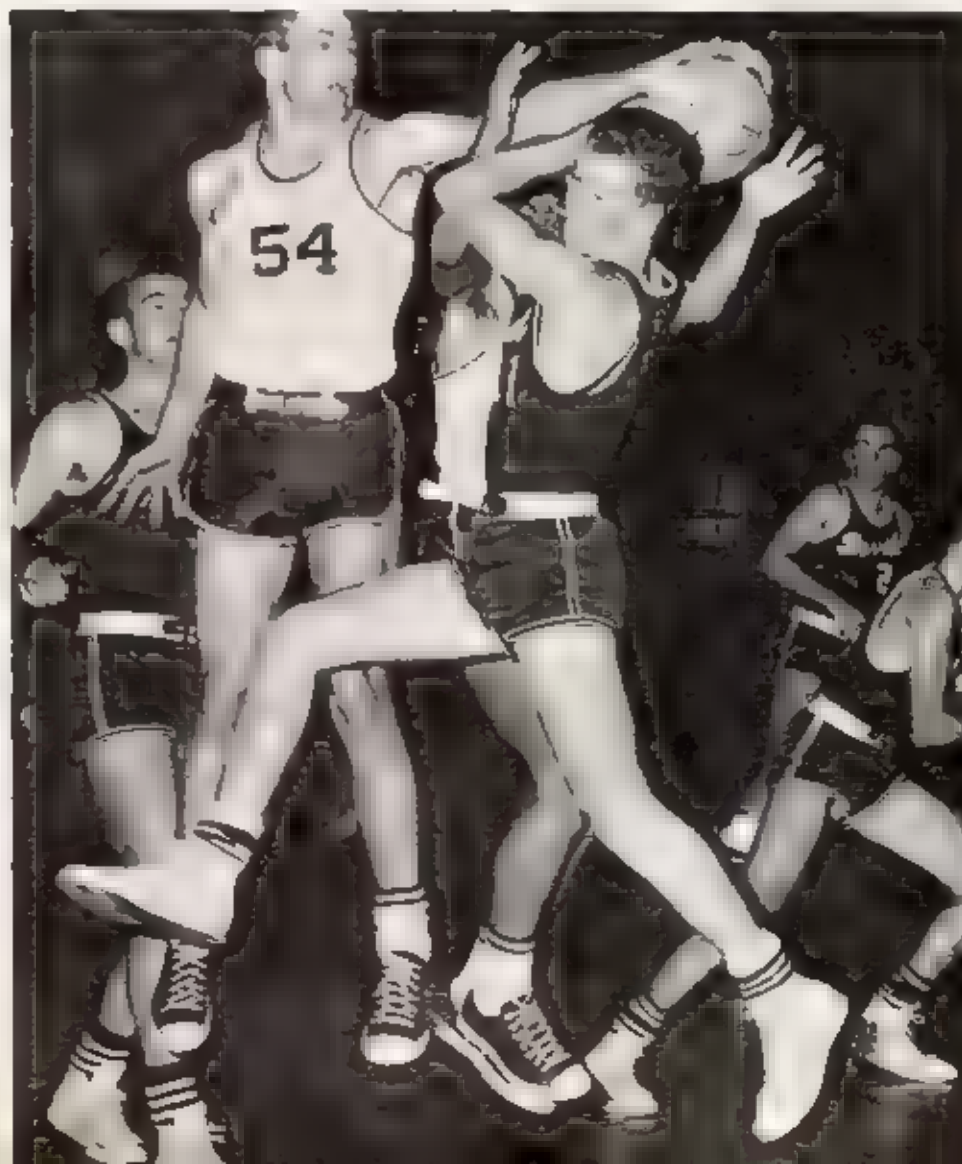

Coach Hal Mitrovich, always the calmest person in the gym, led SAINTS cagers to our first league championship.

With two minutes remaining Mike "Zeke" Shea puts SAINTS ahead to stay in the first Hoover game.

Big John Emerson (54) blocks shot of hapless Devil. John's great defensive play helped save many games this year.

Champions of the Eastern League

With a combination of the expert guidance of Coach Hal Mitrovich, a team of five well-balanced starters, and a strong bench, SAINTS captured the first major varsity championship in the history of the school. The Saintsmen won their first eight games before an injury-plagued team lost to Sweetwater in the Kiwanis Tournament. They became the cynosure of the league at mid-season, reaching their peak and putting away San Diego, Hoover, and Crawford in order. The victory over Hoover was the first in six years.

Bob Spence, the most consistent player, was high point man on the team with a total of 391 points. His great jump-shot and unstoppable drives made him a certain All-League selection. The clutch shooting of Gary Hoffman, an All-League guard, and team captain, Mike Shea, Honorable Mention All-League, were responsible for many a last minute victory. The great ball handling of Jim Antl and terrific rebounding efforts of John Emerson, an Honorable Mention All-League choice, and John Santos kept SAINTS in many games this year.

The Saintsmen entered the CIF playoffs by defeating Grossmont. They advanced to the semi-finals where they handed Hilltop a 48-47 loss, enabling them to meet our league's second place team, Crawford, in the finals. The Saintsmen, cold from the beginning, couldn't match a fired up Crawford five.

This was a season for firsts. It was highlighted by our first league championship and our first entry into the playoffs for the CIF championship, in which we were runnerup. Congratulations are in order to a great coach and a great team for a fine season.

Gary Hoffman (41) shoots for two as SAINTS walked over Morse. Gary averaged 15.2 points per game and was selected on the Eastern League All-League first team.

Eastern League Champs

Led by new coach, Bill Peterson, the J.V. basketball squad came through the season with an admirable 16-1 record and an Eastern League championship. Not picked to win the league, this SAINTS team came on with a blaze of spirit and fought their way to first place where they stayed.

Dennis Dunn, who scored 32 points in one game, was the big gun for the Saints as they disposed of all comers except San Diego. He was ably complemented by the shooting of John Estrada and the rebounding of Dan Vengler and Tom Dobronski.

As this team moves up to Varsity it brings, along with a J.V. Championship, the hope of taking two Varsity championships in a row.

Defending League Champs

Father Berra has taken over as coach of a golf team, which has won the Eastern League Championship for the last two years. This year, with five returning lettermen, chances for a third straight title are excellent. At present, the team has a 3-1 league record with two pre-season victories over Hoover and University.

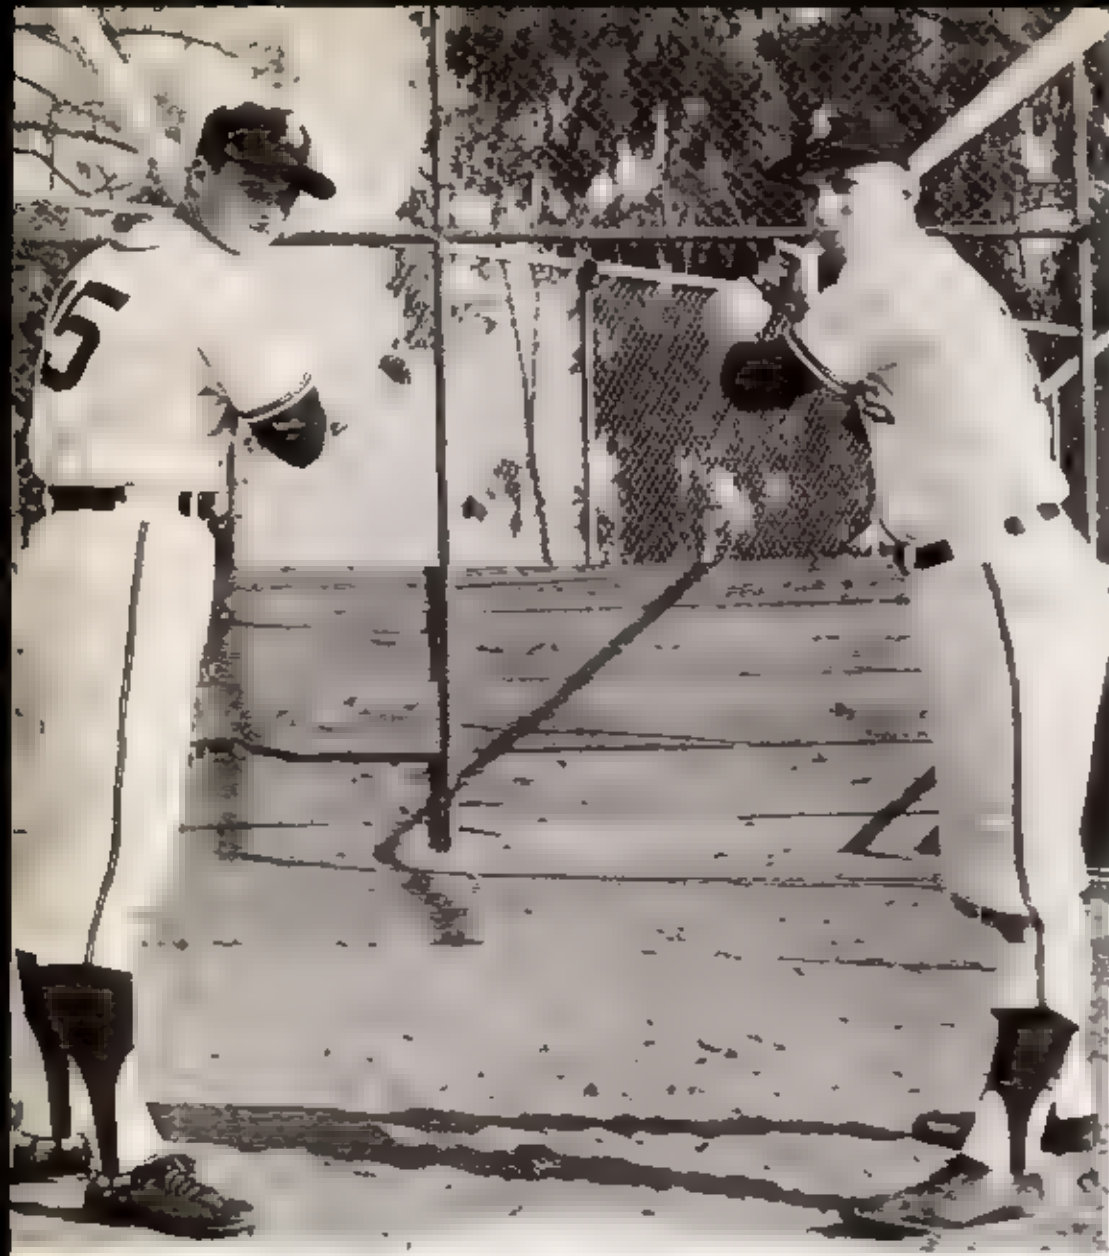

Top men on the team are captain Tom Crotty and Vic Ruiz. Crotty, who does much of his playing at Singing Hills Country Club, has been on the team for four years and has developed into a fine player. Ruiz is exceptionally good, considering that he is only a sophomore.

Balboa Municipal Golf Course is the home course for SAINTS' golf team. The team practices and hosts home matches there.

Varsity Baseball

Outstanding hitters, outstanding fielders, Ferdi Reed and Paul Tuomainen, typical of the athletes produced by St. Augustine.

This year's varsity baseball team is without a doubt the finest team ever assembled at SAINTS. The team possesses outstanding talent, especially in Captains Ferdi Reed, Paul Tuomainen and Bob Ahern. These three players have been the nucleus of the varsity baseball team for three years.

Other players who have done outstanding jobs thus far and figure to be great attributes to the team as it moves toward the league championship, are catcher, Tom DeGuide, Don Stafford, and Bob Spence. The team's leading hitters are Ferdi Reed, .478, and Paul Tuomainen, .370.

This SAINTS team was unpredictable to be sure, but they always provided the big play and there was never a dull moment at a SAINTS game.

J.V. Baseball

The J.V. squad this year, coached by Hal Mitrovich, showed much spirit and desire. Though this was not shown in the won-lost column, the Saints men were never lightly regarded by their opponents. Led by the able batting of Gary Knudsen and Bill Bodensadt with the superb pitching of Joe Mendoza, this team kept foes on an ever alert. Next year's Junior Varsity can expect great things with the maturing of these freshmen and sophomores.

Joe Mendoza shows his form against Lincoln. Joe should turn into one of the finest pitchers SAINTS has seen in years.

Track and Field

This year's track team, considered by many as the top squad in the history of the school, rolled to three straight victories before entering league competition.

Crawford proved too much for the Saintsmen in the league opener, but even they couldn't produce an equal to Henry "Bunny" Daniels who swept to victories in both sprinting events, including a time of 9.8 sec. in the 100 yard dash.

Prior to this meet, Saints had shown spikes to Point Loma and Madison of the Western League, and University High. Our trackmen downed the latter by a score of 72 to 31 despite the fact that Uni-Hi is fielding their "best yet."

The success of the trackmen is due in many ways to their coach, Dallas Evans. His invaluable experience, both as a former track star and leader, proved to be an integral asset to the team's cause. His consistent prodding and Spartan-like discipline kept his athletes in top condition the entire season.

Top participants in the track and field events were Bunny Daniels, Rich Cota (4:37 mile), John Kimbrough (2:05 in the 880) and George Romero (shot put). Jerry Rinder, John Rudd, Regis Clark, Mark Meierbachtol, John Santos, George Romero, Rich Cendali, Rich McColl and Joe Ramos all came forth with top efforts at all times. The end result was a splendid season for our growing track squad.

Varsity Tennis

This year's Varsity Tennis team consisted of four seniors, two juniors, three sophomores, and one freshman. The three sophomores outstanding in their matches. Led by Carlos Carriedo, ranked number 5 in the 16 year old division of California, the team disposed of most opponents. Complementing Carriedo were sophomores Terry McIver and Tony Barkume with Miguel Cardinas, a senior.

This team on the whole was very well balanced, however, was not quite good enough to come in first place in the Eastern League.

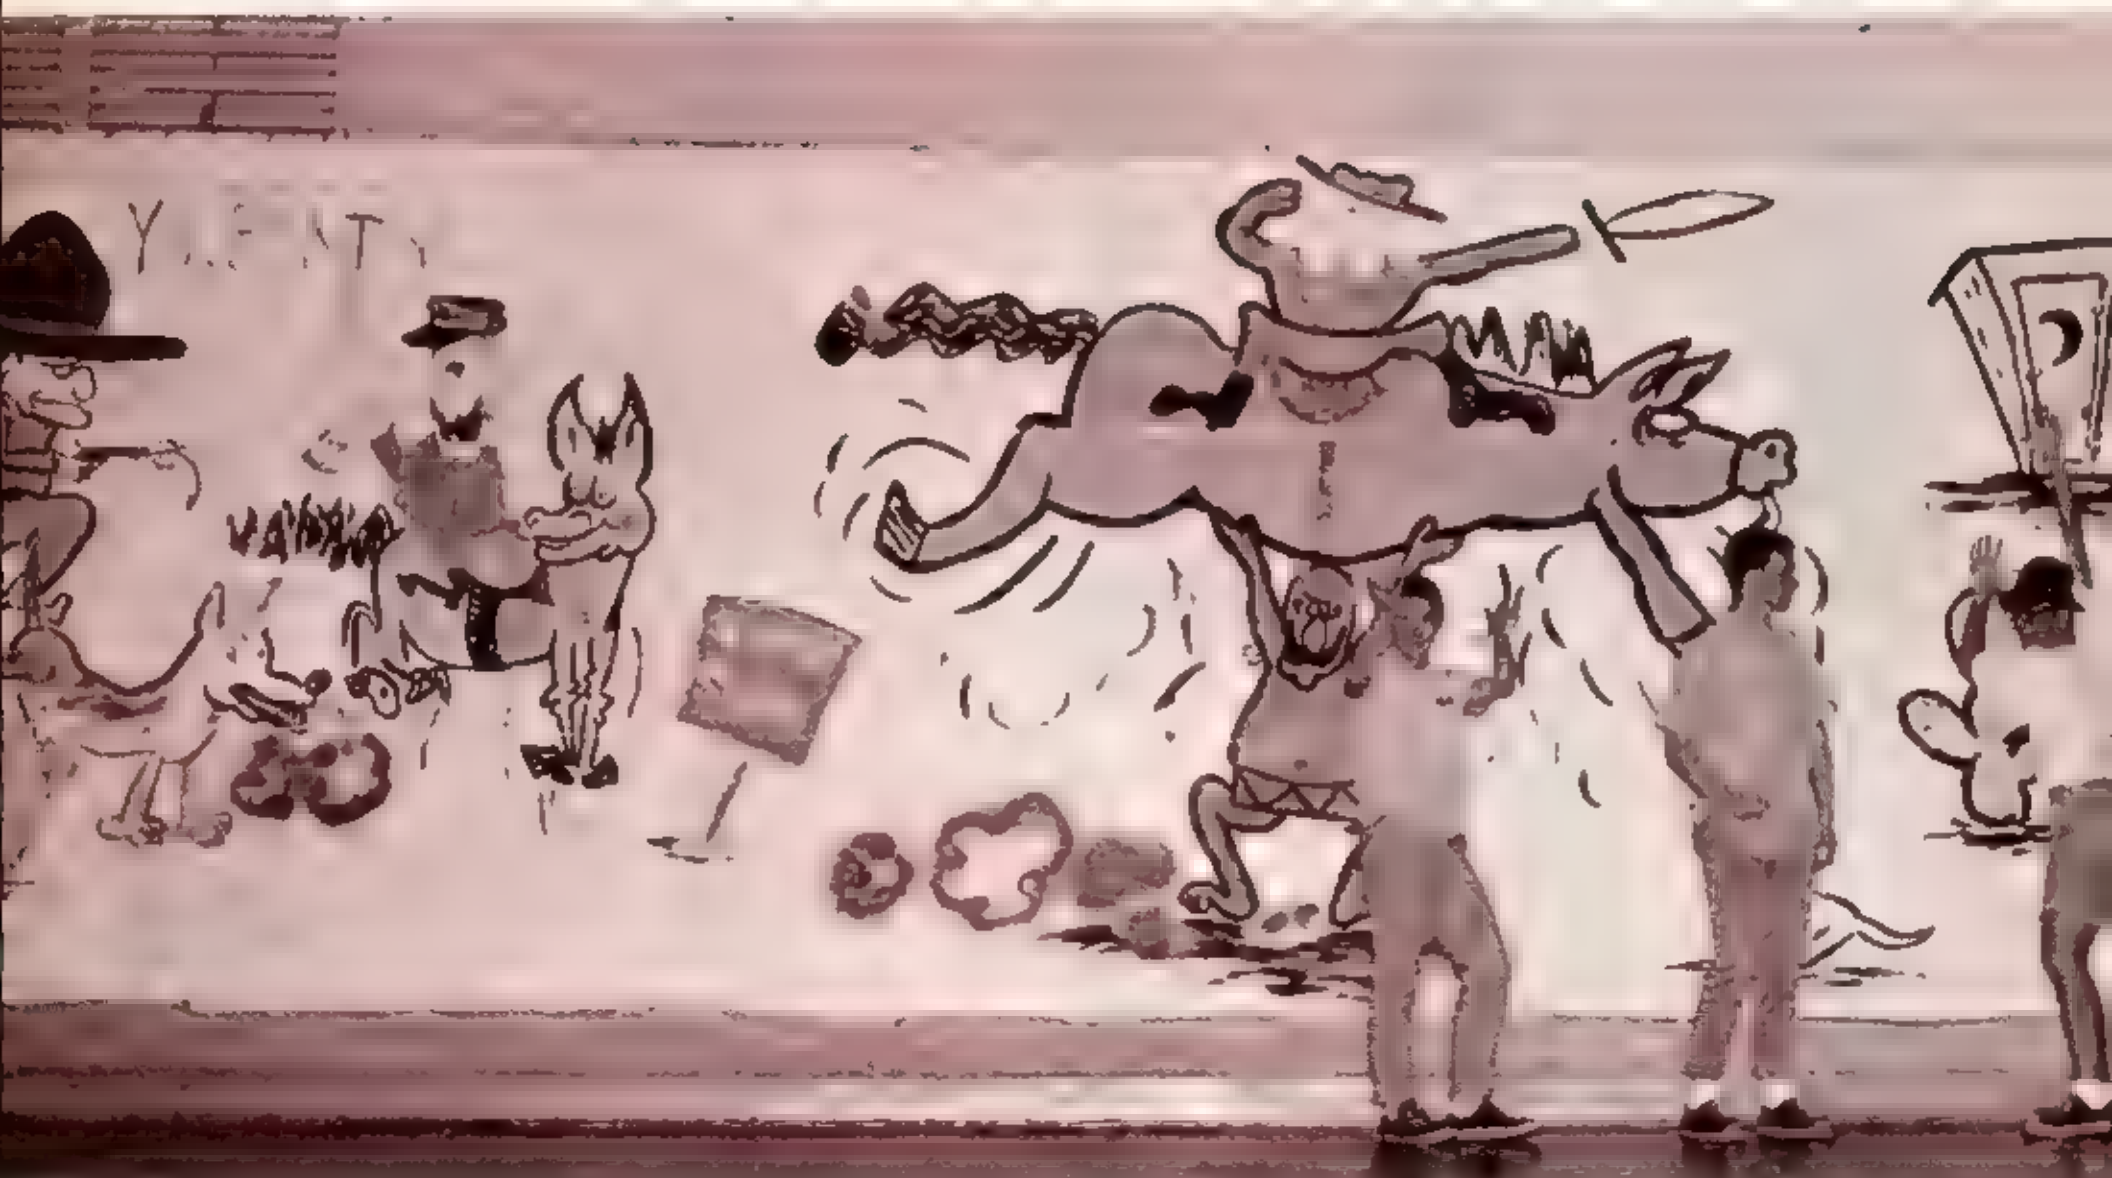

The powerful backhand of Miguel Cardinas kept Saints in the thick of many tennis matches.

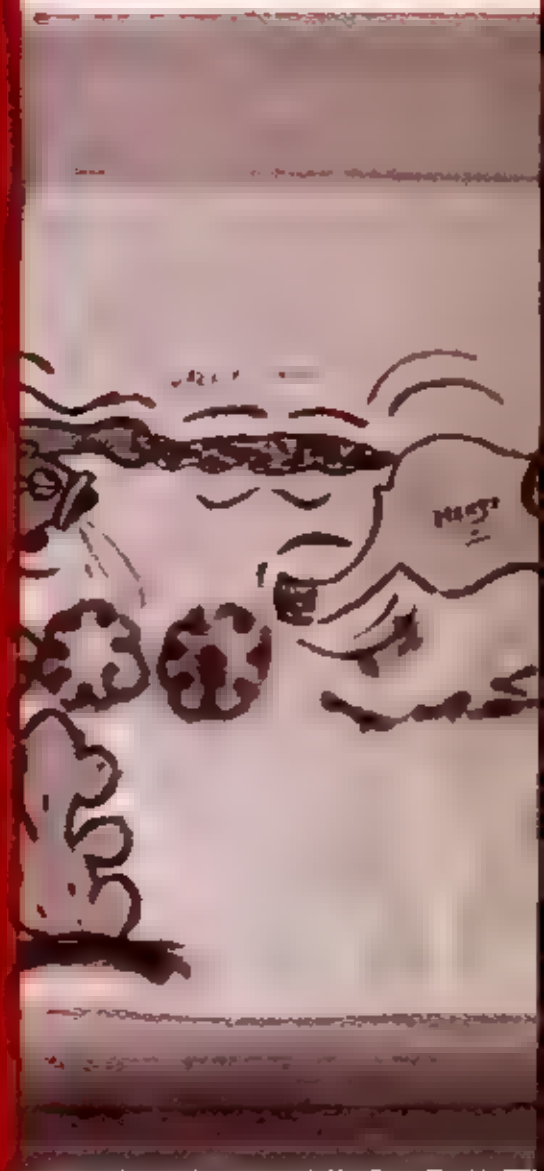

A strong serve is a great asset to a tennis player and Terry McIver shows his.

ACTIVITIES

Activities are an integral segment of any educational system and cognizance of this fact has resulted in a program of social and athletic events that we honestly feel is unmatched in its intensity and coverage. Extracurricular activities serve as a means of development for the body supplementing the basic development of soul and mind. Herein are recorded those events and the people who enjoyed them.

Mass is offered by Fr. Keane.

To Christ Like Living . . .

One of the advantages of Saints is the convenience of the sacraments.

One of the advantages of Catholic education is an active spiritual life. Here at St. Augustine this is exemplified. Each Friday the student body joins in the dialogue Mass, at which time confessions are heard. Days of Recollection are scheduled each semester. On these days conferences, meditation, and prayers remind each student of his purpose in life. The student body generously contributes to the missions and to the chaplain's fund for needy students.

Fr. Churbuck, school chaplain, is always available for guidance and counseling. Personal interviews with the seniors provide just one more facet to a diverse religious program.

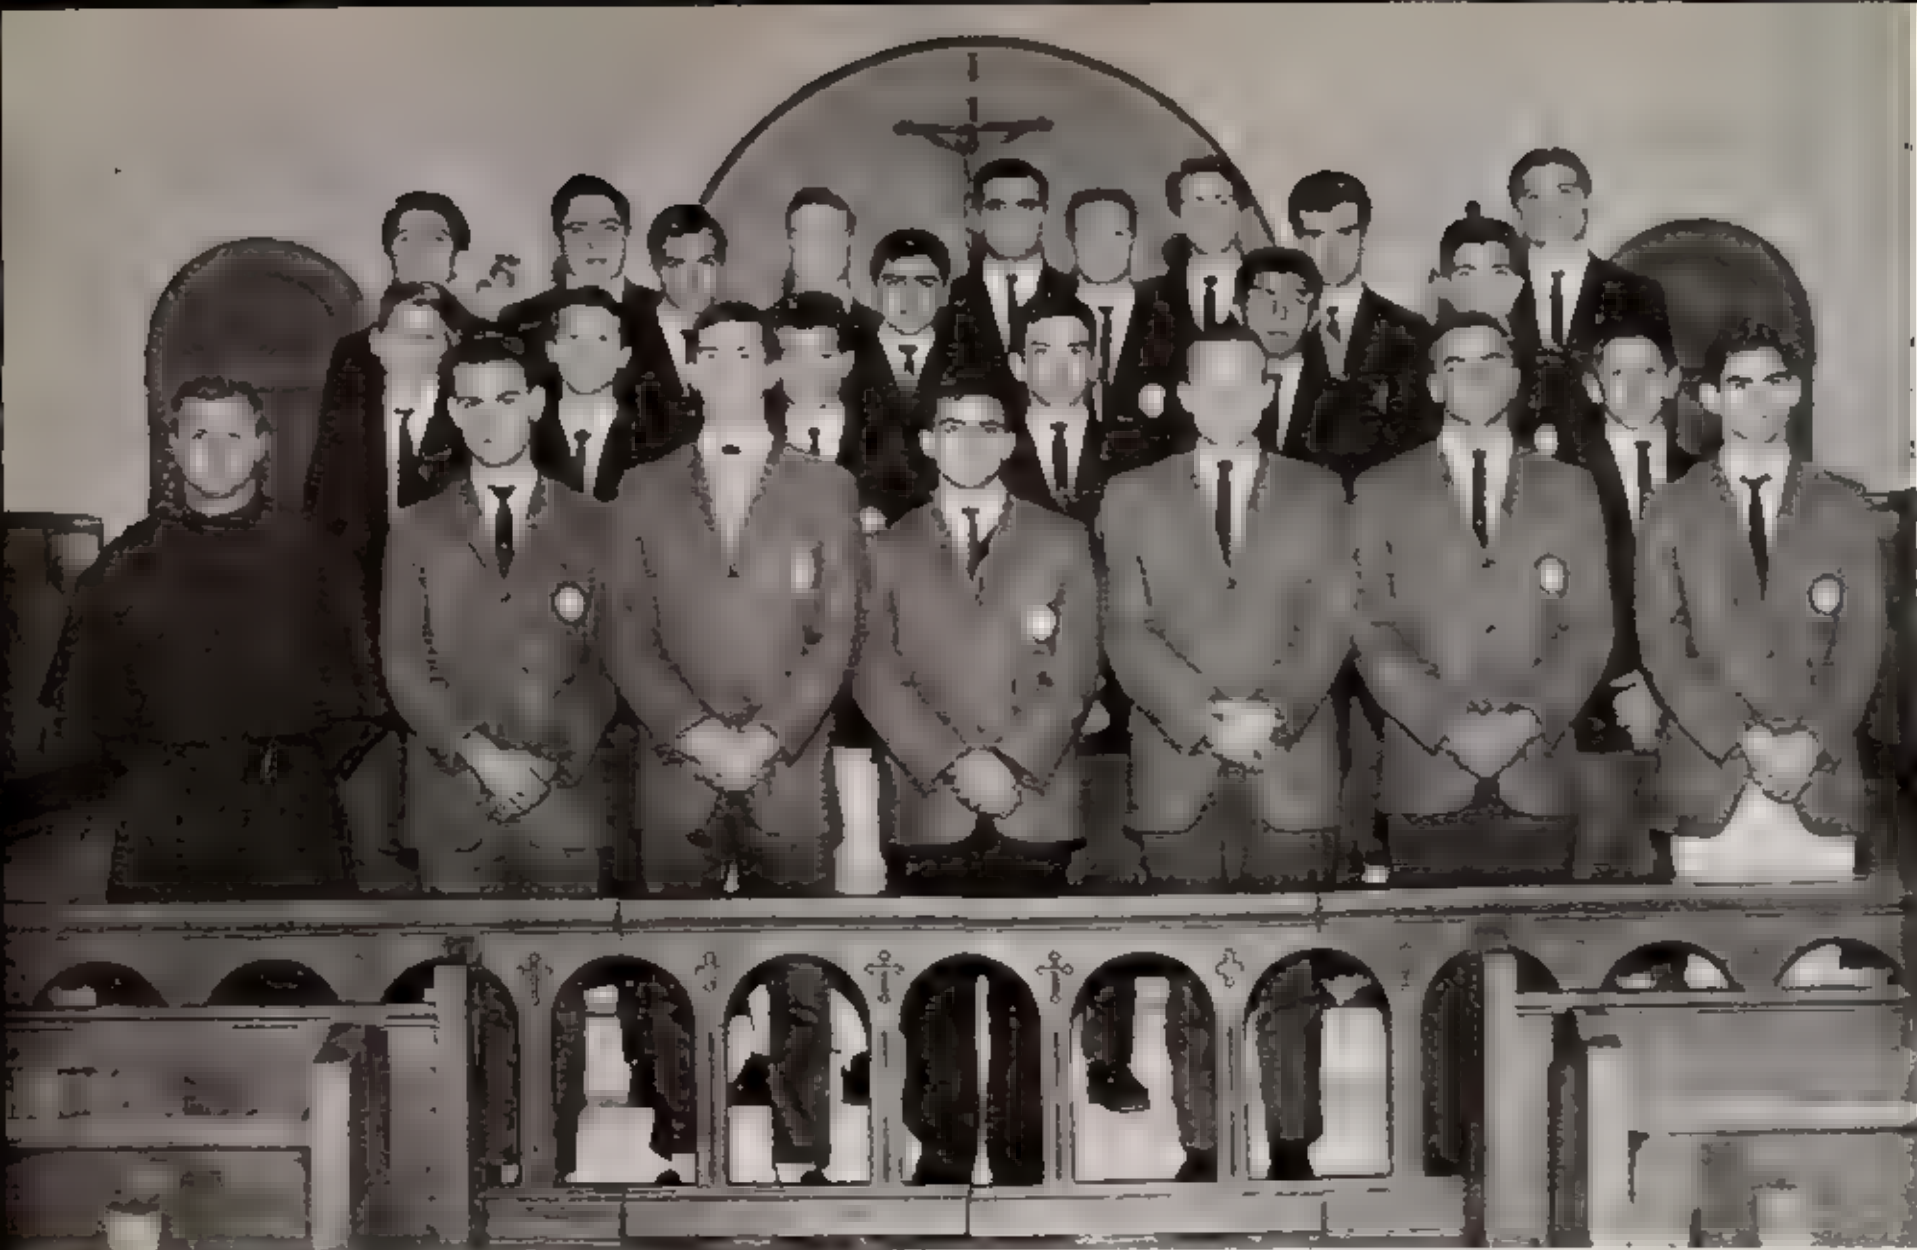

Jim D'Alessandro, Fr. Neely, Larry O'Connor, and Barry Martinson sing Propers of the Mass.

Fr. Keane introduces Bishop McNaughton of Korea who spoke to the student body on the missions.

Fr. Vogel offers Mass assisted by Frs. Mahedy, Daleo, and Hardy. Frs. Mahedy, Daleo, and Vogel were ordained Augustinians this year by The Most Reverend Bishop, while Fr. Hardy was ordained a diocesan priest. All are alumni of Saints.

Cor Unum

A dedicated force behind the spiritual life of our school is the Cor Unum. Under the direction of Fr. Churbuck enrollment in this organization, formed for the enrichment of spiritual life, has reached nearly 90% of the student body.

Three representatives from each section assist the chaplain in such matters as preparing the student Mass, maintaining religious bulletin boards, organizing servers, and collecting for the chaplain's fund. Cor Unum members, being affiliated with the Pious Union of Our Mother of Good Counsel, receive numerous spiritual benefits. It is the intention that members sanctify themselves by frequent visits to the chapel and performance of traditional exercises of Catholic piety.

Cor Unum officers are: Jim D'Alessandro, student director; Larry O'Connor, and Vince Hauser, assistant director.

Jim D'Alessandro leads the student body in the Dialogue Mass.

The Augustinian

Prompt and excellent are two key words which accurately describe this year's Augustinian. The paper has presented its news and views every month—on time and in good order.

Barry Martinson as Editor-in-Chief presented an Augustinian rich in professional qualities. His staff was generally excellent. Bob Simpson led the reporter brigade as News Editor, while Len Weber controlled Features. Sports were under the skillful guidance of Tom de Guide. John Fitzgerald and Jeff Kasmar held Business Manager and Rewrite Editor positions respectively.

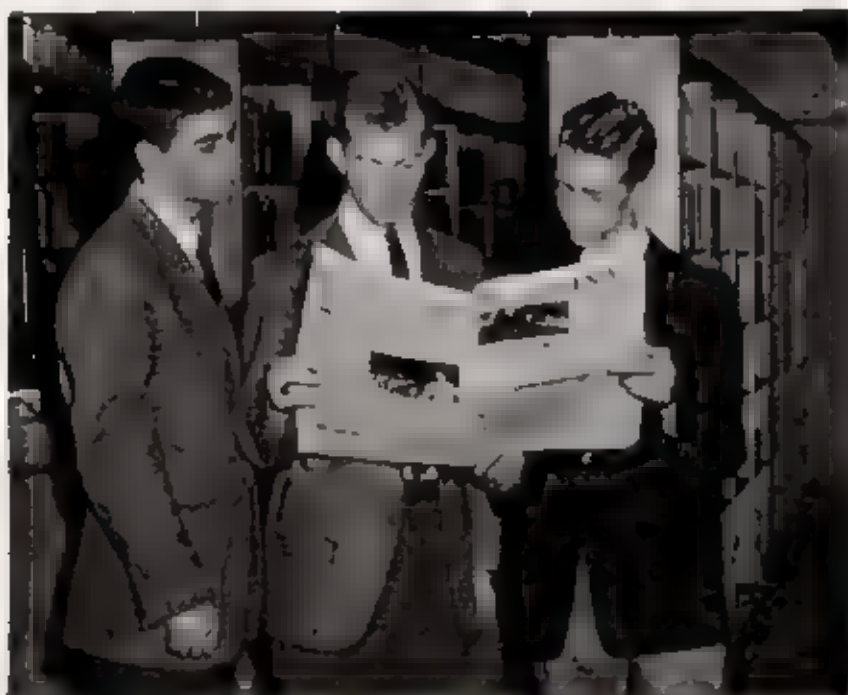

The pages were graced with outstanding photos of Allan Preckel, Bill Bible, Tom Reiland, and Joe Devlin. Mr. Bob Keith acted as Faculty Moderator.

News reporters were Hedgecock, Ryan, Devlin, Weber, Foote, Cintos, Camarata, Burye, Sullivan, and Stiteler.

Feature writers numbered Greenwald, Lawrence, Gerke, Mize, and Colthurst. The Sports writers were Shea, Burke, Hermes, and D'Alessandro.

of Music

Many Saintsmen often forget the tremendous work of one of the school's most valuable assets. This year the 1962-63 edition of the Saint's Marching Band followed the glowing tradition of being one of the area's top Bands. Under the very capable direction of Mr. Frabotta this group of hard working Saintsmen helped make the proud name of Saints better known and respected.

In addition to the excellent job of providing the half-time entertainment at all home football games, the Band was seen entertaining during the Charger's half-times. Fine appearances were made in the Autumn Band Review, All-Western Band Review, Mother Goose Parade, March-of-Dimes Parade, The Toyland Parade, Mary's Hour, and numerous other civic and religious functions.

The Band boosts spirit at football and basketball games and is featured at the annual Variety Show. They also perform at graduation exercises. We salute and thank the Band for its diligent work throughout the year.

Council members Larry O'Connor, Yearbook Editor, and Barry Martinson, Newspaper Editor.

The Associated Student Body Council functions as the life of the school. The Council is responsible for sponsoring dances, rallies, elections, intramurals, and maintaining relations with other schools and organizations.

Leo Sullivan served as president with dedication and integrity. He was capably assisted by Mike Greenwald, vice-president, Phil Clifford, secretary, Ruben Barbachano, treasurer, Steve Wilkinson, commissioner of elections, and Jerry Wisniew, commissioner of athletics. Fr. Wasko moderated the council. Through an amendment passed last year, the editors of the Saintsman and the Augustinian serve as members of the council. Larry O'Connor served as yearbook editor and Barry Martinson as newspaper editor.

The council joined together this year with seven other area high schools to form The Association of Catholic Councils. To the credit of the officers are an exchange program with students of area high schools. The officers performed numerous tasks for the betterment of the school.

All connected with the council can be proud of their fine job.

Drama and Tradition

For the third straight year the students of Saints, Our Lady of Peace, and Rosary have combined their talents to publish the literary magazine Tradition. Tradition is intended to provide a forum for creative writing talents. It is composed of poems, short stories, essays, and book reviews. Mr. Fahy directed its publication.

Homecoming '62

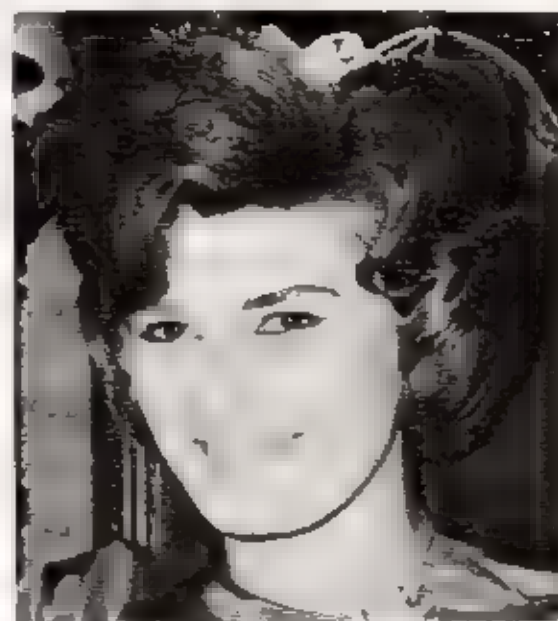

Fr. Keane offers High Mass for deceased alumni.

Homecoming celebrations for '62 began with a Requiem Mass for the deceased alumni. Fr. Keane offered the Mass assisted by fellow alumni Frs. Garrett and McLaughlin. The Homecoming rally was held later in the day with alumnus-actor Victor Buono serving as guest speaker.

The day was climaxed with a 13-6 victory over San Diego. Half-time entertainment included music by the marching band and the presentation of the OLP pom-pom girls and the Rosary flag-twirlers. The highpoint of the entertainment was the crowning of Miss Jennifer Young of OLP as queen. Her court consisted of Dianne Demeers of Catheral; Rita Lenninger of RCA; and Gail Livingston of Rosary. The day came to a close with the Homecoming dance in the gym following the game.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders are given the task of injecting the spark for the yell of the crowds. They serve as an important part at most all athletic events. This year's cheerleaders were Mike Buchanan, Frank Santos, Ernie Casares, and Steve Lind. They were assisted by the talents of Mary Mercado of Regina Coeli, Pat Hitchcock of Our Lady of Peace, and Mary Jo Simons from Rosary.

Pep Club

To the Pep Club goes the tremendous task of maintaining and encouraging school spirit. This year, as in the past, the S.A.P.S. have met the challenge with enthusiastic response.

Club President Ronnie Rinder directed the hard-working members. The members faithfully made signs and posters encouraging the support of our teams. During the football season the task of making and selling of "booster ribbons" was carried out. The men of the S.A.P.S. made posters advertising dances and other activities which are a vital part of school life. We congratulate and thank the Pep Club for its fine work this year.

Pep Club President Ronnie Rinder performs one of the Club's most prominent tasks that of making signs for the games.

The St. Augustine branch of the California Scholarship Federation draws as its members those students with high scholastic standing who are active in campus activity. The C.S.F. provides a tutoring service to students who desire help in their studies. This year our elite scholars sent a team to participate in Knowledge Bowl play against Our Lady of Peace, University, Marian, Cathedral, and Rosary High schools. Our team of A.C. Burye, Mike Camarata, Mark Foote, and Douglas Pepin, with Jim Mize serving as substitute, won the Bowl Championship.

C.S.F. life members this year include Jim D'Alessandro, Mike Camarata, Jeff Kasmar, Larry O'Connor, Bob Simpson, and Len Weber. Other members are: Mike Akre, John Borja, A. C. Burye, John Carney, Paul Chenard, Al Cutri, Joe Devlin, Mark Foote, Steve Kevane, Barry Martinson, Jim Mize, Tom Franklin, Harry Jones, Geza Molnar, Doug Pepin, Steve Shackford, Bob Spence, Leo Sullivan, Len Ware, and Steve Wilkinson.

This distinguished group of Saintsmen, coached by R. Adm. Paul F. Dugan, participated in Math Field Days at Occidental and San Diego State Colleges. The Math Club also took part in the Math Association of America Contest. In all contests our team did exceptionally well. In addition to other activities the club was host to the Annual Math Field Day for Parochial Schools.

Bowling Club

Jim Schneider snaps one down in hope of a strike.

The St. Augustine Bowling Club is undoubtedly the most active and recreational group at Saints. The club bowls every Tuesday afternoon at the Aztec Lanes. The club, under the moderation of Fr. Berra, remains a member of the American Congress of Junior Bowlers.

The Radio Club generates electronic interest on campus. The members, who all have ham sets, hope to complete a ham station here on campus with the surplus military equipment they have obtained. The club, affiliated with the American Radio Relay League, a national organization of amateur radio, receives various benefits, including training films. Len Weber serves as president and Michael Whitney as vice-president.

Radio and Chess

For the second year the St. Augustine Chess Club has competed with other schools. The team defeated Hoover and Coronado, but lost to Clairemont. The club belongs to the Chess Federation of San Diego. Meetings are held weekly during noon. Mike Camarata serves as president with A. C. Burye as Sergeant-at-Arms. Harold Jones is Secretary-Treasurer.

The Senior Court is an active organization which adds to the discipline of the school. The power to pass judgement on underclassmen who have committed infractions of minor rules is given to the senior judges. Students who receive summons must appear before the court under penalty of ten points. Those who have repeatedly received summons often were given heavier sentences.

Senior judges were Tom Procopio, Bob Ahern, Vic Miller, and Mike Greenwald. The bailiff was John McCarthy; Defense Attorney, Vince Hauser; and Sergeant-at-Arms, John Grant.

We Gave

Saintsmen raised nearly three thousand dollars this year through the sale of the World's Finest Chocolate to aid in the building of the Augustinian Seminary. In the picture at left, students assist in the counting of money.

We Built

One of the most noted improvements on campus this year was the building of basketball courts behind the gym. The new courts have served nearly all Saintsmen and are a welcomed addition to the school.

Brown, the group assisted in the building of the new Basketball courts through the profits of the Football Prom Program. At the prom, Alumni president John Carmichael presented to Don Stafford the award for the best back and Rich Cendali was named best lineman. The association sponsored the Annual Parochial School's Basketball Tournament and took part in the alumni basketball game. A May Communion breakfast was held and like all alumni activities was a tremendous success. A banquet was held to honor our championship basketball team. Through their conscientiousness they have set up a number of scholarships and contributed to the Augustinian Seminary Fund.

In Closing . . .

Dear Friends:

It would not seem fitting to close the 1963 SAINTSMAN without a word of appreciation to those who by their dedication have made this yearbook possible. This year's staff consisted of a corps of hard-working and talented individuals whose abilities were frequently and unselfishly donated. I would like to thank especially Bill Bible, our persevering photograph editor. Also Mike Greenwald, the seniors editor who wrote all of those one hundred and forty personals, and Ed Ryan who with John McCarthy and Tom Burke assembled our finest sports section ever. My gratitude is further extended to Joe Devlin, our associate editor who doubled as underclass editor, and to John Fitzgerald to whom fell the tedious and unheralded task of compiling the activities section. Finally, a note of thanks to Father McLaughlin, our Moderator and chief supplier of snacks clandestinely obtained from the monastery refrigerator. They have exceeded all my expectations. For all these and for all who cooperated in their effort this yearbook stands, a tribute to their spirit and sacrifice. Thank you.
